

Villa Adriana

Visit the grandeur of the Roman Empire. Villa Adriana, in Tivoli near Rome, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The complex was built by Roman Emperor Hadrian between 118 and 138 AD. The site blended the best elements of the architectural heritage of Egypt, Greece and Rome in the form of an "ideal city," which extended over 300 acres. It included buildings, baths, temples, barracks, theaters, gardens, fountains and nymphaeum. Let our tour guide take you on a tour of one of Italy's most visited archaeological sites. After the tour, there will be free time for lunch.
