

Happy New Year! See what's new at NSA Naples FFSC:

NSA Naples
FLEET & FAMILY
SUPPORT CENTER

FAMILY EMPLOYMENT READINESS PROGRAM (FERP)

FEBRUARY IS TEEN DATING VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

21 JAN: Navy Spouse in Transition

This workshop is designed for Navy spouses navigating the military-to-civilian transition alongside their Sailor. Can't make the workshop? You can always email NSANaplesFFSC@us.navy.mil to schedule a 1:1 FERP appointment.

20 FEB: HEALTHY RELATIONSHIP ESCAPE ROOM FOR TEENS

This collaborative event is part of FFSC's month-long campaign to bring awareness to teen dating violence and promote healthy relationships. Additionally, alongside our community partners at DoDEA, CYP, and EDIS, we will host small, supportive group discussions and activities about Respecting Healthy Relationships. Follow Naples FFSC throughout February and visit loveisrespect.org to learn ways we can support our teens and promote healthy relationships for all.

NEWS & UPDATES

You can now register for Area Orientation online!

A new process is now available to sign up incoming personnel (or yourself) for the Area Orientation Brief! Scan the QR codes below to register and view the 2026 AO Calendar. You can also continue to register by sending an email to NSANaplesAO@us.navy.mil

REGISTRATION 2026 DATES

FAP Victim Advocates Offering In-Person Trainings:

Family Advocacy Program (FAP) VA's are available to provide role-specific training on the dynamics and prevention of domestic and child abuse in the military community to commands, law enforcement, DoDEA, CYP, Ombudsman, and more.

NSA NAPLES FAP INSTRUCTION

For more information, e-mail: NSANaplesFFSC@us.navy.mil

Call us at COMM: +39 081-811-6372 or DSN: 629-6372

Follow us on Facebook at Naples FFSC